

Top Ten Books that have influenced my life A'Jamal-Rashad Byndon (aka) The Y's 1

1. Biko, Stephen The Testimony of Steve Biko: Black Conscious in South Africa (1978) Granda Publishing Random House N.Y. & London
2. Mill, Charles W. The Racial Contract Cornell University Press (1997)
3. hook, bell killing rage an owl book Henry Holt and company New York (1995)
4. The Autobiography of Russell Means Where White Men Fear to Tread St. Martin's Griffin N.Y. (1995)
5. Woodson, Carter G. The Miseducation of the Negro AMS Press Inc. NY. (1933)
6. Fanon, Frantz Black Skins White Masks Grove Press (1967) N.Y.
7. Thiong's ,Ngugi wa Petals of Blood E.P. Dutton Publishing Co NY (1977)
8. Williams, Chancellor The Destruction of Black Civilization : Great Issues of Race from 4,000 B.C. to 2,000 AD Third World Press 1976 Chicago IL
9. Frieir, Paulo Pedagogy of the Oppressed N.Y. Herder and Herder (1970)
10. Fanon, Frantz The Wretched of the Earth Ballantine Book NY (1963)

Other contentions:

Robinson, Randall The Debit: What America Owes to Blacks (2000)

Walter Rodney, How Europe Underdeveloped Africa Bogle-L' Ouverture Publishing (1976)

Allen James Without Sanctuary: Lynching Photography in American 2000 Twin palms Publisher Santa Fe NM

Ignatiev, Noel How the Irish Became White

The Autobiography of Malcolm X as told to Alex Haley 1965 N.Y. Ballantine Books

Jackson, George Soledad Brother: The Prison Letters of George Jackson Banta books(1972) NY

Walter Vincent Brooks. Trust No Shadows After Dark: African American Genocide in the United States
Published by Walter Vincent Brooks 2021

abyndon@gmail.com